

How would you describe your style and who/what has influenced it?

I'm somewhat conservative with a sprinkle of flair. I love to give a timeless piece an updated va-voom. You can also find me wearing at least one or two trendy pieces for fun. Boots are a weakness from conservative to weekend over-the-knee sass. My mom has influenced my style. She is a timeless, artful dresser who is in her 70's still models. I'm blessed.

What do you do for the WellHouse?

I've worn many hats from day one, including rescuing victims, speaking to businesses and churches, conducting training for law enforcement and the public, teaching life skills and helping to change laws in order to protect our children. We started with $33 in the bank, 2 employees and one house and now we have 4 houses, 72 acres and a full team.

Collage is partnering with the Wellhouse to bring awareness to our community about Sex Trafficking in Alabama. We are bringing a a movie to the Carmike Theater in Vestavia on Febuary 5 called '8 Days' and all the proceeds will go to the WellHouse. Tickets are $12.01 and are available at tugg.com/events/12578.

How can people help the WellHouse?

Email info@the-wellhouse.org or call 800-991-9937. I appreciate that Tracy and her staff at Collage is willing to step out in our community to have a voice of justice for those who are being tragically caught up, coerced, stolen and thrown into the sex-trafficking agenda at a staggering $29 billion industry in the USA, a life that is now a commodity.

It is a story many do not want to talk about because of the deep dark, ugly, scary crime it is, but with one voice at a time we CAN make a difference!
